The Mansion Group Ltd requires that third party organisations which handle or obtain any personal information are required to comply with the Data Protection Act 1998 and the General Data Protection Regulation acknowledge the confidentiality and sensitivity of the data, undertake to respect individual's rights to privacy and only use the information for the limited purposes which have been agreed.

Other than indicated above, we will not disclose any of your personal information without your consent unless we are required to do so by law.

We will not sell, rent out or trade your personal information to any other third party. We will not transfer the information you provide to us outside of the European Economic Area.

How Do We Protect your Information?

We have strict security procedures covering the storage and disclosure of your information in order to prevent unauthorised access to comply with the Data Protection Act 1998 and the General Data Protection Regulation. This means that sometimes we may ask for proof of identity before we disclose personal information to you. Only relevant members of staff will have access to the personal information you give to us.

How long do we keep your Information?

We will store any personal data which you have given to us for as long as you continue to use our services. However, there are various legal requirements and/or business best practice requirements that determine the retention periods for different kinds of information.

We will regularly review the personal data we hold, and delete anything we no longer need, unless there is a special reason for keeping it. An example of this could be if we require the information to help us recover rent arrears after someone has left one of our properties. For more information see our Retention Policy.

What are your rights in relation to the information we hold about you?

- You can request a copy of the personal data we hold on you, details of how we use and store your data, or receive further details regarding your rights
- If any personal data we hold regarding you is incorrect, you may request a correction to this information at any time
- You may request that we stop processing your personal data at any time or to object to our continued use of your data. This does not affect any processing that has been carried out prior to your request being received
- You can request us to limit what we do with your information
- You have the right to request that we transmit all or any personal data we hold regarding you to a third party in a commonly used format
- You have the right to ask us to delete any or all personal data that we hold on you. The only reason we would not carry out this request is if it would result in us being in breach of other legal or regulatory obligations we have, but we would always inform you at the time if this was the case
- If we have been using your information on the legal basis of consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. This wouldn't affect any use of your personal data carried out up until that point, but would have immediate effect from when we receive your request

Our obligations to comply with the above rights may be subject to certain exemptions.

Any requests or objections should be made in writing to the Data Protection Officer by email to dpo@themansiongroup.co.uk or in writing to The Data Protection Officer, The Mansion Group Ltd, 1 Oakwood Square, Cheadle Royal Business Park, Cheadle, Cheshire SK8 3SB.

Customer Feedback and Complaints

We welcome your questions and comments about privacy issues. If you are not happy about how we are using your personal data, please email us at dpo@themansiongroup.co.uk and we will try to resolve your complaint.

If you are not satisfied with our response you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk>, click the "Report a concern" link and then following the steps found on the page.
